Hello, Nina

Instructions: After reading the KidsHealth.org articles on Internet safety, finish the computer’s speech to Nina. Try to include why you think Nina’s behavior has not been safe and the best way to deal with strangers you meet online.

Hello, Nina. This is your computer. I noticed you wrote back to someone you do not know! I am concerned that you are not keeping yourself as safe as you could.

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________