Quiz

Instructions: Answer each question.

1. The main poisonous, addictive chemical in tobacco is called:
   a. addictotine
   b. nicktheteen
   c. kerosene
   d. nicotine
   e. amphetamine

2. True or false: It’s better to chew tobacco than to smoke cigarettes.

3. Name two health problems caused by smoking:
   __________________________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________________________

4. Name one way you avoid peer pressure to smoke:
   __________________________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________________________

5. Kids and teens can’t make a parent or guardian stop smoking, but they can ________________ them quit.