9+1+1 = Emergency

Instructions: Choose one emergency, then practice what you could say if you were calling 911.

1

You're playing ball in your yard with your babysitter when all of a sudden, she falls to the ground. She's having trouble breathing.

You call 911.

2

You're watching TV at home when you notice flames coming out a window of your neighbor's house.

You call 911.

3

You're playing at your friend's house when you hear a loud crash. A car has hit a tree, and the driver is hurt.

You call 911.

This is the 911 operator. What is your emergency?

What's your name?

Where are you? What's your address?

Can you tell me what happened?

Is anyone hurt?

Is anyone else with you?

Are you safe where you are?

OK, stay on the phone. Help is on the way!
